

CODE OF CONDUCT NOTICE

Group Name

Ship Name & Sail Date

We are pleased that you are sailing with us on your cruise vacation. As you know we are a Family Cruise Line and all of our onboard activities are set in a family friendly atmosphere.

We do have certain guidelines that need to be addressed in reference to your group. These guidelines are set forth in the Conduct Agreement signed by your Group Leader and attached hereto and incorporated herein, as well as in the passenger ticket contract. Failure to adhere to these requirements will not be tolerated.

As stated in Carnival's ticket contract, Carnival will not tolerate any behavior, which affects the comfort, enjoyment, health and safety of other guests or of our crew. We reserve the right to refuse or discontinue passage to anyone, who in Carnival's judgment is conducting themselves in a manner that adversely affects the cruise experience of others.

We strive to make sure all guests enjoy their cruise vacation in the family friendly environment we have created. As Carnival Cruise Lines continues our commitment to provide a family friendly atmosphere on board for all guests, it may become necessary to enforce our policies. Exceptions to these policies will NOT be considered. Please understand that we advise all groups that approach Carnival of our policies and that we are a family orientated cruise line.
